

Open Position

---

Associate Project Manager (m/f/d)

The Erdrich Group of companies is an internationally operating Automotive Parts manufacturer. From five plants globally, located in Europe, China and the US, our products are shipped to OEM and Tier 1 suppliers worldwide. We specialize in metal forming and assembly. At our Dublin plant ca 100 employees produce more than 4 million parts annually with a sales volume of $35 million.

Department:

- Project and Process Development

Tasks:

- Project planning and controlling.
- Interface with customers for new and ongoing projects.
- Frequent communication with all relevant contacts for the project.
- Definition, optimization and updating of process and planning data throughout the process chain in project management tools, e.g. SAP.
- Set up and review milestone plans for e.g.:
  - Equipment.
  - Logistics.
  - Packaging.
  - Sample deliveries.
  - Customer sign-off schedules, e.g. PPAP's.
- Responsible for change management processes.

Your Profile

- Experienced project manager with background in the automotive industry.
- Strong hands on approach in daily business.
- Active contributor for further development of the Project Management System within the company.
- Skilled user of PC-applications (Office, SAP, Web based applications).

What We Offer

- An excellent reputation as a technology leader in our field of specialization.

Start Date

- The position is open for immediate staffing.

Applications

- Written applications to rob.crumpton@erdrich-USA.com. For further information call (478) 277 4904.